

Instructor Application Process Frequently Asked Questions

- Where can I find the Instructor schedule and how do I apply to become an Instructor?
  - You can apply for Instructor training and locate classes near you at Find Instructor Training Courses.
- What are the requirements for becoming a Mental Health First Aid Instructor?
  - Information on training requirements and the application process is available at Become an Instructor.
- What is the cost of the Instructor training?
  - The cost of the Mental Health First Aid Instructor training is $2,000 for the 5-day training and $950 for the 3-day training. The fee includes breakfast, lunch, training materials and ongoing technical support from the Instructor Support Team.
- How much time will it take to process my application?
  - Applications are processed within 7-10 business days after submission. If you need your application expedited, email MHFAapplications@TheNationalCouncil.org with the subject line: "Expedited Application Request."
- When will the location for the training be published?
  - Training venues are sent to participants registered for the course five weeks before the start of training.