

MENTAL HEALTH FIRST AID DOCTORAL STUDENT GRANTS

The Mental Health First Aid (MHFA) USA Doctoral Student Grants represent a commitment by the National Council for Mental Wellbeing to grow the research behind and evaluation of all MHFA programs. Each year, the grant will provide a one-time award of $5,000 to six outstanding full-time doctoral students who demonstrate significant potential as researchers in their fields of study and who are interested in evaluating the outcomes of MHFA trainings in the U.S.

ELIGIBILITY

- Documented experience with MHFA (e.g., as an MHFA Instructor or Coordinator) and/or strong interest in MHFA.
- Full-time doctoral student (e.g., Ph.D., DrPH, Psy.D.) pursuing a degree in psychology, public health, or related field of study.
- Previous evaluation experience and demonstrated ability to document findings through publications and/or presentations.

REQUIREMENTS

Once funded, doctoral grant recipients must:

- Participate in quarterly research calls with other grantees.
- Submit a final report of research findings to the MHFA team within two years of receiving the grant.
- Participate in an MHFA-sponsored event highlighting research.
- Pursue a formal, non-MHFA sponsored publication or presentation opportunity

APPLY!

The application will be posted on April 3, 2023. The deadline for applying is May 21, 2023.
